Trail Description

Meandering along the Contra Costa Canal, this trail offers a safe off-road corridor connecting Martinez, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Concord. The trail connects local parks in Pleasant Hill (Las Juntas Park), Walnut Creek (Larkey Park, Heather Farm Park), and Concord (Lime Ridge) as well as other Regional Park trails, such as the California State Riding and Hiking Trail, the Briones to Mt Diablo Regional Trail, and the Iron Horse Trail.

One of the first EBRPD regional trails, established in 1976, the trail promotes non-vehicular transportation between schools, commercial areas and public transportation centers and provides significant recreation opportunities in central Contra Costa County.
